Invitation to Present!

The CCPA 2010 Conference, “Counselling: What’s on the Horizon?” will be held on May 11 -14, 2010 at the Delta Prince Edward Hotel, in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island. The pre-conference day will be held on May 11, 2010. The conference will be held on May 12, 13, 14, 2010.

The Canadian Counselling Association (CCPA) and the Prince Edward Island Counselling Association (PEICA) invite you to submit a presentation proposal. Please share this Call for Presentations with your colleagues.

Theme – Counselling: What’s on the Horizon?

This year’s conference will provide participants and presenters the opportunity to reflect on the tremendous changes in practices, methods, modalities, settings and regulations that are affecting our profession.

Delegates will be exploring the challenges we face in our workplaces and with our clients. Presenters will attempt to answer the question “What’s on the horizon?”

Application Evaluation Process

Each application will be reviewed and evaluated using the following criteria:

- Completeness and accuracy of application
- Relevance to the conference theme “Counselling: What’s on The Horizon?”
- Relevance to intended conference audience (described below)
- Style of presentation (provide attendees with a variety of session formats to choose from). Examples:
 - o interactive, using demonstrations, discussions and/or lectures
 - o individual presentation/demonstration – intended to provide an opportunity for participants to learn about innovative effective programs and practices related to the various topics listed
 - o panel discussion – intended to target a specific issue or idea. Using a variety of perspectives, the discussion should provide alternative solutions, interpretations or contrasting points of view on the subject

- hands-on – intended to actively engage participants over fifty percent of the session time, dealing with curriculum, best practices, and obtaining new skills
- Length of presentation requested and schedule availability. Space is limited. Sessions are 90 minutes in length, along with a limited number of 3-hour workshops. Please indicate your preference on the application.
- Language of presentation. Organizers are committed to offering presentation opportunities in both official languages.

Intended Audience

It is expected that more than 400 participants will attend. Intended audience:

- counsellors
- educators
- career practitioners
- community agencies
- universities and colleges
- employment services
- policy makers

Instructions for Submissions

1. Applications must be received by October 31, 2009. Applications will not be accepted after the deadline.
 - a. Electronic submissions are preferred – please send to:
ccacc2010@rogers.com
 - b. Fax submission to: Alene Holmes at (506) 446-5804
2. A confirmation of receipt of application will be sent to the Presenter 1 listed on the application form.
3. For submissions with more than one presenter, all communication will be sent to Presenter 1.
4. The Program Committee reserves the right to make final presentation selections. Presenters will be notified of final acceptance and regrets via e-mail to Presenter 1.
5. By submitting a presentation proposal, it is understood that the presenter(s) agree(s) to present and to participate as proposed, if accepted. The conference registration fee and all other expenses incurred to attend are the responsibility of the presenter(s).
6. Write an accurate program description, as you want it to appear in the final program. One of the biggest disappointments is attending a session that is not what you thought it was going to be! The Program Committee reserves the right to edit abstracts.
7. Presenters are invited to submit summary reports and copies of their presentations/handouts for possible publication and/or to be posted on the conference web site.
8. Organizers encourage the submission of presentation proposals in either official language. Sessions can be offered in French or English. A limited number of sessions will be translated simultaneously. The Program Committee will select the sessions to be simultaneously translated and the Conference Coordinator will contact the presenters for their agreement.
9. Presenters are responsible for copying their handouts/presentations for distribution to session participants.

10. The Program Committee may accept more than one presentation from a single speaker. This will be determined on a case-by-case basis given the number of presentation proposals available and the mix of topics submitted.
11. By submitting a presentation proposal, it is understood that the presenter(s) agree to be part of an evaluation process that asks conference participants to evaluate each session they attend.

 Deadline for submissions October 31, 2009 ***

What is the Canadian Counselling & Psychotherapy Association?

The Canadian Counselling Association (CCPA) is a national and bilingual association of professionally trained counsellors engaged in the helping professions, which is dedicated to the enhancement of the counselling profession in Canada. CCPA members work in many diverse fields of education, employment and career development, social work, business, industry, mental health, public service agencies, government and private practice. CCPA presently has approximately 3,100 members across the country. CCPA members who undergo the certification process are eligible to use CCPA's Canadian Certified Counsellor (CCC) designation.

The association has provided leadership and has been involved in the promotion of counselling since 1965. It nurtures formal and informal links with similar organizations in Canada and internationally. It offers the opportunity for its members to be in contact with other counsellors, who are active in a variety of work settings, worldwide, in order to exchange ideas and best practices, provide mutual support and promote professional development. In addition, CCPA presently has twelve Chapters, representing specialized interest groups of counsellors from all parts of Canada. For more information you can visit the CCPA website at www.ccpa-accp.ca.

What is the Prince Edward Island Counselling Association?

The Prince Edward Island Counselling Association's (PEICA) mission is to promote counselling services on Prince Edward Island by providing support to the membership.

Objectives of the PEICA:

- To unite in one local organization all those persons who are engaged or interested in Counselling in the Province of Prince Edward Island.
- To promote contacts amongst diverse persons, agencies, organizations, professional associations, business and institutions participating directly and actively in the work of educational, vocational, and personal counselling for youth and adults.
- To provide facilities for an exchange of information relating to counselling services.
- To work toward the development and co-ordination of existing counselling services.
- To work through community and private agencies and governmental and educational authorities, and to collaborate with other professional associations towards improved conditions, resources, research and facilities. Such efforts shall be consistent with the Guidelines for Ethical Behaviour as stated by the Canadian Counselling Association.
