CCPA 2010 Annual Conference

May 11-14, 2010
Charlottetown, PEI

The 2010 “Counselling: What’s on the Horizon?” conference will be held on May 11 - 14, 2010 at the Delta Prince Edward Hotel, in Charlottetown, PEI. The Canadian Counselling & Psychotherapy Association (CCPA), and the Counselling Association of Prince Edward Island invite you to exhibit. Please share this invitation to exhibit with your colleagues.

Here’s the one place you’ll find the tools, strategies, techniques and ideas you need to meet your toughest challenges and grow professionally – the 2010 National Conference of the Canadian Counselling & Psychotherapy Association. Pre-conference workshops will be offered on May 11, 2010. Exhibitors are able to set-up for this event, if they so desire.

The Canadian Counseling & Psychotherapy Association invites you to participate in the three days of professional development in the multifaceted world of career and personal counselling.

This national forum is the only one of its kind in Canada - devoted to providing professional counselors with the following:

- ◆ New information about products, programs and services
- ◆ Practical tools and resources
- ◆ Innovative solutions
- ◆ Networking opportunities

Who is CCPA?

The Canadian Counselling & Psychotherapy Association (CCPA) is a national and bilingual association of professionally trained counsellors engaged in the helping professions. CCPA is dedicated to the enhancement of the counselling profession in Canada. CCPA members work in many diverse fields of education, employment and career development, social work, business, industry, mental health, public service agencies, government and private practice. CCPA presently has approximately 3,100 members across the country. CCPA members who undergo the certification process are eligible to use CCPA's Canadian Certified Counsellor (CCC) designation.

The association has provided leadership and has been involved in the promotion of counselling since 1965. It nurtures formal and informal links with similar organizations in Canada and internationally. It offers the opportunity for its members to be in contact with other counsellors, who are active in a variety of work settings, world wide, in order to exchange ideas and best practices, provide mutual support and promote professional development. In addition, CCPA presently has several Chapters, representing specialized interest groups of counsellors from all parts of Canada.

Who is PEICA?

The Prince Edward Island Counselling Association's (PEICA) mission is to promote counselling services on Prince Edward Island by providing support to the membership.

Objectives of the PEICA:

- ◆ To unite in one local organization all those persons who are engaged or interested in Counselling in the Province of Prince Edward Island.
- ◆ To promote contacts amongst diverse persons, agencies, organizations, professional associations, business and institutions participating directly and actively in the work of educational, vocational, and personal counselling for youth and adults.
- ◆ To provide facilities for an exchange of information relating to counselling services.
- ◆ To work toward the development and co-ordination of existing counselling services.
- ◆ To work through community and private agencies and governmental and educational authorities, and to collaborate with other professional associations towards improved conditions, resources, research and facilities. Such efforts shall be consistent with the Guidelines for Ethical Behaviour as stated by the Canadian Counselling Association.
