

Social Justice Chapter Travel Award for Student Members

Part of the mission of the Social Justice Chapter is to entice counsellors to give back. We are pleased to offer our Annual Travel Award for students who are currently doing work in social justice and who would like to attend the CCPA Annual Conference.

Requirements

- Be a full- or part-time student enrolled in a counselling/psychotherapy or counselling-related graduate-level program.
- Be a student member of the CCPA.
- Submit your up-to-date CV showing your social justice involvement.
- In 250 words or less, tell us about yourself:
  - provide a description of your social justice involvement through work or volunteerism. (If chosen, your write up will be included in our next newsletter).
  - let us know what specifically draws you to—and what you hope to get out of attending—the CCPA Conference in the context of social justice.
  - The travel award is in the amount of $350 to cover the recipient's conference registration and other fees.
  - If selected for the award, you will be required to attend the CCPA Social Justice Chapter's Annual General Meeting, held during the conference, to receive the award. It is also an opportunity for chapter members to meet you and hear briefly about your social justice involvement.

Award

Please download and complete the CCPA Awards Application Form found on the CCPA website and use the contact information on the form return the form to the CCPA head office, along with your CV and write-up, by January 17.