

CANADIAN COUNSELLING AND
PSYCHOTHERAPY ASSOCIATION
L'ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE DE
COUNSELING ET DE PSYCHOTHÉRAPIE

The Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association — We're Here for You!

CCPA promotes and champions the profession of counselling and psychotherapy in Canada.

Our members receive the highest quality support, continuing education, professional networking,
and advocacy.

Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association
6-203 Colonnade Rd S. Ottawa, Ontario K2E 7K3
Toll Free: 1.877.765.5565 Fax: 613-237-9786

Why join the Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association?

The Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association (CCPA) is a national bilingual association providing professional counsellors and psychotherapists with exclusive educational programs; certification programs; professional learning opportunities; the latest research and practices in the profession; job opportunities; potential clients, and the latest news on statutory regulation.

CCPA strives to understand and address the needs of the diverse community of counsellors and psychotherapists in Canada and aspires to be inclusive in its membership. The Association is a strong voice for the promotion of counselling and psychotherapy.

Our Members

- Counsellors
- Psychotherapists
- Counsellor Educators
- Counselling Therapists
- Clinical Counsellors
- Students
- Nurses
- Psychologists
- Mental Health Therapists
- Social Workers

and more...

Provide Services

- Personal and Group Counselling
- Addictions Counselling
- Creative Arts Counselling
- Transition Planning
- School Counselling
- Spiritual Counselling
- Grief & Loss Counselling
- Marriage and Family Counselling

and more...

In Diverse Settings

- Private Practice
- Employee Assistance Programs
- Community Agencies
- Rehabilitation Centres
- Hospitals
- Correctional Institutions
- Educational Institutions
- For Profit and Not-for-profit Organizations and others...

CCPA promotes policies and practices that advocate for:

- Cultural & linguistic respect
- Social justice
- Spiritual needs
- Cultural diversity
- Foreign-trained healthcare professionals
- Professional mobility
- Competency assessment protocols

Staying current and relevant

As the national advocate and voice of the profession, CCPA monitors factors that affect the public and our members across the country. We conduct research, communicate with like-minded associations and organizations, and survey audiences to ensure that our strategies and courses of action align with changes in:

- Immigration
- Aging populations
- Natural disasters
- Governmental policies
- Demographics
- Regulation of the profession
- The evolution of the profession at home and abroad.

Benefits of your CCPA Membership

- Advocacy
- National certification – Certified Canadian Counsellor designation (CCC)
- Professional learning
- Educational programs
- Direct contact with professional peers and specialty groups
- CCPA's Ethics Committee
- National Code of Ethics and Standard of Practice
- Professional Liability Insurance
- Home and Automobile Insurance
- Discounts on selected hotels and public services

We promote policies and practices that support competent, Canadian, professional, accountable and accessible counselling services throughout the human lifespan in a manner sensitive to the pluralistic nature of society.

CCPA provides programs, publications, initiatives and events that support the advancement of our members and the profession

- Annual national conference (held in a different province each year)
- Professional Awards program
- Official recognition of professional learning activities through Continuing Education Credits (CEC)
- Regional-and Specialty-area Chapters, Webinars, information sessions, workshops & speakers
- Graduate student representative programs
- Council on Accreditation of Counselling Education Programs (CACEP)
- Publications: Cognica and the Canadian Journal of Counselling and Psychotherapy
- Online: CCPA Blog "Counselling Connect"
- list-serv bulletins

CCPA welcomes counsellors, psychotherapists, and other mental health-related professionals to join the Association

Want to know more? Please contact us to learn more about the benefits of becoming a member of the Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association.

Call Toll Free at 1.877.765.5565 or email us at info@ccpa-accp.ca or visit our website at www.ccpa-accp.ca

We're an association of counselling and psychotherapy professionals dedicated to working in the mental health and wellness field across Canada.