

CANADIAN COUNSELLING AND
PSYCHOTHERAPY ASSOCIATION
L'ASSOCIATION CANADIENNE DE
COUNSELING ET DE PSYCHOTHÉRAPIE

The Canadian Counselling and Psychotherapy Association (CCPA) is seeking Student Reps in your counselling PROGRAM!

CCPA has a Student Representative program at Universities that offer master's-level degrees in counselling or related fields leading to certification.

These Student Reps are available to contact if you have any questions about CCPA, its membership, and/or the profession. CCPA Student Reps act as a liaison and facilitate communication between the University, its students, the appropriate Provincial Director and CCPA. They engage in activities intended to inform students about the Association and the counselling profession. CCPA encourages and supports Student Reps to be actively involved with the students on campus, with the CCPA National Conference, and with CCPA's Student Newsletter.

BENEFITS

- FREE membership and FREE access to Chapters of Interest
- Regular updates on the regulation of the profession in the province as well as across the country
- Access to professional liability Insurance during your practicum placement
- Student Incentive Program
- Publish in our Student Newsletter

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Work alongside the Provincial Director
- Participate in Annual Conference calls with CCPA Head Office
- Hold a CCPA Introductory Info Session for students interested in learning more about the association
- Participate in the publication of the Student Newsletter
- Communicate relevant updates from CCPA to counselling students
- Agree to have your name, and email address posted on the CCPA website
