Past activities (last 6 months or whole year)

- Fall newsletter: asked for interested parties to apply to open positions, promoted the research grant, updated membership on the research being conducted.
- Spring newsletter: asked for interested parties to apply to open positions, promoted research grant, asked membership to hold the AGM date and invited them, promoted the supervision resources on CCPA website, and promoted Psychotherapy and Counselling Month events.
- Continued data analysis for the survey that was completed in the summer. Developed a presentation on preliminary findings and presented at a virtual CACUSS mental health event, and pre-recorded a session for the CCPA conference.
- Updated the website to have the bylaws available in French, have more information about the current chapter officers, and updated the application for the Practitioner Research Grant.

Chapter Finances

As of March 21, 2022, we have a closing balance of $5,111.30 in our account.

Planned Activities

- AGM on May 13, 2022.
- Write a summer newsletter.
- Complete data analysis on the survey data and create a digestible handout to distribute.
- Continue working on the issues papers, now informed by the data that we have.
- Meeting with chapter officers to determine priorities for the year, following the AGM.
