

Private Practitioner Award for Excellence

Objectives

- The Private Practitioner Award has been established to meet the following objectives:
 1. To promote the vital role played by Private Practitioners in the Canadian Counselling and psychotherapy field by our Chapter Members.
 2. To recognize a Chapter Member counsellor/psychotherapist for demonstrated commitment to excellence and high professional integrity.
 3. To heighten awareness of the Private Practitioners Chapter and its commitment to heighten awareness of the best practices of its members.
 4. To promote and inform the National and local community of this prestigious award bestowed on a deserving private practitioner of the chapter.

Presentation

- This annual award will be sponsored by the Private Practitioners Chapter and will be presented at the CCPA Annual Conference each year. A commemorative plaque and monetary award (maximum $500.00) will be presented to the recipient.

Nomination – Eligibility

- Any professional member of the Private Practitioners Chapter in good standing is eligible to be nominated. Nomination of a chapter member may be submitted by another chapter member or non- member due to the unique work environments of Private Practitioners.

Application Procedures

- Candidates wishing to apply for this award must submit the following documents:
 1. A letter from a counsellor/psychotherapist or educator
 2. 150 word essay as to why s/he is nominated for the award

Evaluation Criteria

- Applications will be evaluated on their overall merit, by the Chapter's Awards Committee.

Deadline

- Nominations must be sent to Shelly Mann at peicounsellor@gmail.com by June 1st (only for this year's submission)!
